

THE MAN BEHIND THE MASK

I am writing this letter to introduce you to none other than Anthony W Johnson, the man behind the mask.

In all of my years both in and outside of the entertainment industry, I have rarely met and/or had the privilege of working with anyone who possesses the sheer multitude of talents, remarkable degree of commitment, consummate professionalism, and far reaching capabilities, as does Anthony W. Johnson.

Mr. Johnson consistently demonstrates a profoundly diverse, complex and seemingly unending skill set which includes poet, dancer, choreographer, graphic artist, novelist, web designer, director and music producer just to name a few. What's more is that Mr. Johnson not only excels at each and every one of these endeavors but, in many cases, borders on genius.

But what lies beyond his relentless array of abilities is something that simply cannot be measured by aptitude nor appraised by conjecture, that something is his humanity, his compassion and above all, the genuine sincerity of his heart.
